Puro Maza Academic Scholarship

Application Form (STS117)

The Puro Maza Academic Scholarship is a partial scholarship based on merit and need, available to qualifying undergraduate and graduate students. This scholarship provides a financial award of twenty five percent (25%) of the tuition charges for each semester. For students receiving financial aid or aid from other programs, the financial award calculation of the twenty five percent (25%) payment towards tuition costs is only applied to the remaining tuition balance after financial aid and other programs are applied.

To qualify a student must:

1. Complete the MAU Scholarship Application Form.
2. Have completed at least one semester at MAU. To establish this, the submission of unofficial transcripts from MAU must accompany this application.
3. Be a full-time student during the spring and fall semesters maintaining:
 - A course load of 12 to 15 semester credit hours at the undergraduate level.
 - A course load of 9 to 12 semester credit hours at the graduate level.
4. Have a minimum GPA of 3.0. To establish this, the submission of unofficial transcripts from MAU must accompany this application.
5. Provide two (2) letters of recommendation from a combination of former high school or other postsecondary institution faculty members, advisors or employers.
6. Complete the "Income and living expenses work sheet" (Form: STS103 or STS126), and provide documentation that supports the need for financial assistance specified on the form.
7. Write and submit an autobiographical essay of 600 words minimum (and maximum of 800 words) which details previous education and employment experience, your home situation, transportation issues, employment status and career goals.
